A Word From Our President...

Welcome back for a new season where we will be in the new Chelmsford Center for the Arts. We had a great showcase for our Art Festival in the beautiful new surroundings. Thanks to so many of our members and others in the town who helped us to get everything together. It was my honor to cut the ribbon to open the front door.

Image by Bob Stegmaier

This year we will be meeting on Wednesday nights. I hope we can get some members to come who were always busy on Tuesdays.

Another change will be with the Newsletter. It will now be sent out Quarterly, in September, November, February, and May. As usual you may download it from the Internet or receive it by mail. Everyone will be kept up to date this way. There are some wonderful new programs for the new season.

See you at the meetings.

Caleb Stone was born in the artist's colony of Rockport, MA where he was exposed at an early age to plein air painting and attended professional artists' workshops with his father artist, Don Stone NA. He studied at the Lyme Academy College of Fine Arts in Old Lyme, CT. The artist works in watercolors, oils or pastels.

His work is exhibited in many galleries and private collections. The artist has received numerous awards including the John Stobart Fellowship Award and Best in Show Manchester by the Sea. Caleb Stone gives demonstrations and workshops throughout Eastern Massachusetts.

Free, everyone welcome.

Carol McGrath

Wednesday October 31, 2012 at 7 p.m.

Chelmsford Center for the Arts

1A North Rd, Rt. 4, Chelmsford, MA

The Chelmsford Art Society is presenting Carol McGrath who will demonstrate trompe l'oeil ("fool the eye") with acrylics.

A trompe l'oeil painting by
Carol McGrath

Carol has studied at the Kendall School of the Arts, Rhode Island School of Design, Montserrat College of Art, and has studied with artists/teachers whom she admires.

The artist worked in tole painting for 20 years, then became interested in painting murals. After painting a mural with a stencil on her wall of an ocean front scene, she thought it would look even better with a 3D look. After hearing about a new school in Georgia, Decorating Masters Institute, she enrolled and here learned many of the methods to create trompe l'oeil (fool the eye) effects.

She is a member of the Arts League of Lowell and maintains a studio at Western Ave. Studios, 122 Western Ave. 5th Floor, Studio #29, Lowell, MA.

The meeting is free and open to the public.

Fresco and Tempera Painting Techniques - The painting technique of fresco reflects one of the most popular artistic mediums in Southern European Medieval and Renaissance Art. We will explore art from Giotto to Michelangelo to understand how the technique of fresco served to inspire and educate the viewers of their time and our own.

Martha Chiarichiaro has lectured in the history of art for more than 25 years. After receiving her Masters' degree in the History of Art from Williams College, Martha began working in the Education Department at the Worcester Art Museum.
