

February Demonstration

"Liberation" Acrylic painting by Rita Thompson

The Chelmsford Art Society is presenting Rita Thompson who will demonstrate Exploring Acrylics. A Boston native, now living in Chelmsford, Rita has studied at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Presently, her acrylic paintings are more abstract, rather than representational. She also works in oil, watercolor and mixed media.

She has previously been a member the BVAU (Boston Visual Artists' Union) and WEB (Women Exhibiting in Boston) and is a long time member of the Chelmsford Art Society. Her work has been shown with these organizations, many places in Middlesex County and surrounding areas, where her recent paintings have won awards.

Her work has been accepted in the following juried shows: Frances N. Roddy Open Competition at the Concord Art Association, Brush Gallery Members Show, Arts League of Lowell Members Show, and the Whistler House Museum Members Show. Recently, three paintings were selected to be included in 'Her Art: A Celebration of (10) Women Artists in Boston'. The Museum Council of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston chose one of her paintings to be included in the silent auction at their June fund raiser, The Summer Party.

A Word from the President

For our April 26, Tues meeting, we will be holding a "Show & Tell" at the Library. We will set up tables in the McCarthy Room and artists who would like to, may display a few pieces of art work. They may talk and explain about their art work, to people who attend the meeting which will be open to the public.

If the artist likes, they maybe working on a piece at the time or not. They might have their cards out to advertise. You can not sell things at the library, but the artist could sell at a later time.

This is a way to show your art work and to tell people about it. You may sign up, call or e-mail me if you are interested in presenting your work.

The deadline to let me know is before March 29th.

An Important Message

After February 15, 2011, the Old Town Hall will be closed for about a year. The plan is to rehab the building and update it with a working kitchen, elevator and remove the lead paint, among other things. The Art Society will be affected since all our meetings will be held at the Town Offices, Summer Place and the Library.

There are no plans for the 4th of July Art Festival so far. We can just see how it goes.

The Chelmsford Art Society will meet for the demonstration on Saturday February 26, 2011, at 2:00 PM at Summer Place Retirement Residence, 20 Summer St., Chelmsford, MA. The meeting is free and open to the public.

January Critique

Dianne Levine critiqued our art work at the January monthly meeting. Dianne brought along 4 of her paintings, 2 acrylic and 2 pastels to explain how she develops her compositions.

It was a cold winter night, but many of us came out to get her insight on our artwork. Dianne had a lot to say and we kept her busy until 9:15! We really appreciated all of her helpful suggestions and it was a great to see the work in progress by so many other members.
