Tom Gill's painting style is inspired by John Singer Sargent, Norman Rockwell, Richard Schmid, and many others. He describes his style as impressionistic realism. Tom developed his own style using acrylic paint mostly on canvas to express his emotions, using brush strokes that are full of energy. He likes to work fast and paints figures in their own environment. He finishes his paintings spontaneously with what he calls: "slap, dashes, and dots." The result is always loose and impressive with harmonious colors that interplay with light.

Vera Kaufman was awarded Best In Show at the CAS July 4, 2008 Art Festival.

CAS 2009 CALENDAR

This past July, the Chelmsford Art Society (CAS) hosted their Annual Fourth of July Art Festival for the 40th year. It was to celebrate this event that the CAS board created a 2009 fine art calendar.

CAS members entered nearly 100 pieces in the Annual Library Member Show at the Chelmsford Public Library this past winter where a 3-person jury was given the daunting task of selecting 12 pieces for the calendar.

Congratulations to the following artists whose artwork is included in the 2009 Chelmsford Art Society Art Calendar: Kathy Clericuzio, Tom Gill, Claire Gagnon, John Giannino, Judi Heron, Vera Kaufman, Elaine Major, Gopika Narula, Evelyn Newman, Elsa Noy, Trina Teele, Robert Webb.

Our new wall calendar, featuring CAS members' artwork, is both beautiful and functional. For $15./ea pick up your calendar at our CAS monthly demonstrations held at the Old Town Hall in Chelmsford on the last Tuesday of each month, 7-9 pm, or purchase calendars at The Art Room in Chelmsford. You can also order your calendar(s) on our web site ($17./ea when shipped).
